Uncle Sam's Favorite Son

COL. CHARLES A. LINDBERGH

250,000 To Greet 'Flyin' Fool' In Washington Fete Police Guard Is Planned

By DAMON RUNYON
(By Universal Service)
WASHINGTON, June 9.—Young Charles Lindbergh, at this moment the foremost living American, hits Washington around noon Saturday, and our nation's capital has its trigger finger trembling on a welcome blast that is calculated to blow all the water out of the Potomac river.

FORECAST AMERICAN
Do not think I exaggerate on the side of enthusiasm when I speak of Young Charles Lindbergh as the foremost living American. A gentle reader of this dizzy old world, aside from the spectacular daring of his lone flight across the Atlantic.

Every mother, and every father sees in this strapping potentially their own son. I mean to say he represents to them the possibility of the spot.

I think it requires no psychologist to explain the amazing appeal of young Charles Lindbergh to the masses of this dizzy old world, aside from the spectacular daring of his lone flight across the Atlantic.

TYPICAL "BOY"
Oh, yes!—and out through the United States some 100,000,000 other folks will be reading and talking about young Charles Lindbergh, and joining in spirit, at least, in the greeting to him as he "lights from the scout cruiser Memphis at the Washington navy yard Saturday.

So I repeat, and challenge contradiction, that young Charles Lindbergh is at this moment the foremost living American, whoever may presently be nudging him out of the spot.

I think it requires no psychologist to explain the amazing appeal of young Charles Lindbergh to the masses of this dizzy old world, aside from the spectacular daring of his lone flight across the Atlantic.

Every mother, and every father sees in this strapping potentially their own son. I mean to say he represents to them the possibility of the spot.

LINDBERGH TO FLY TO N. Y. NEXT MONDAY

(By Universal Service)
ABOARD CRUISER MEMPHIS, June 9.—"I expect to fly the Spirit of St. Louis from Washington to New York on Monday," said Colonel Lindbergh to Universal Service.

"The plane will be assembled by the navy at Washington at Bolling Field, I believe."

The "boy" is coming out in Colonel Charles A. Lindbergh as he nears home. With the cruiser Memphis making about 22 knots (Continued on Page 8)

Three Building Permits Issued

Burg Brothers will erect a one story cottage on the west side of Thirty-fifth street between Roosevelt and Clinton avenues according to a building permit issued yesterday by City Building Inspector A. J. Hurley. The cost of the cottage will be $4500.

Mrs. C. A. McCollum will add two rooms and a bath to her home on the west side of Shasta avenue between Panhandle and Coalings avenues.

A temporary real estate office will be put up by Frank P. Brophy on the west side of San Pablo avenue between Edmond and McBryde avenues. The cost will be $150.

Mr. and Mrs. C. G. Copeland and E. C. Price of Los Angeles, Mrs. Copeland's brother, have recently returned from Portland, Ore., where they visited friends for the last three weeks.

Motive Sought In Suicide Of Local Woman

Mrs. Georgia Martini, 30, wife of Robert Martini, proprietor of the Pullman hotel, 500 Pullman avenue, ended her life by drinking lysol shortly before midnight last night.

No motive for the act could be learned in an investigation conducted by police authorities last night. The woman had apparently been in good health, according to Martini, who also denied that there had been any quarrel that might have led to Mrs. Martini taking her own life.

According to Martini, his wife came into the room in which he was sitting, and fell to the floor in a dying condition. First-aid treatment was rendered by Dr. A. L. Hedges, who then had the woman taken to the Cottage hospital, where she died shortly after midnight.

Mrs. Martini was a native of Fort Bragg. In addition to her husband, she is survived by two children by a former marriage, Daniel Minahan, aged 16, and Dorothy Minahan, aged 12.

The police investigation was conducted by Acting Sergeant George Bengley and Patrolman T. D. Lloyd.

The remains are at the Wilson and Kratzer morgue.

105 GRADUATE FROM R. U. H. S.

One hundred and five seniors of Richmond Union high school were presented with diplomas at commencement exercises held last night in the Roosevelt Junior high school auditorium.

Diplomas were presented by Miss Nora Ashfield, assistant superintendent of city schools. Frederick T. Blagden, speaker of the evening, made an address on "Looking Forward," while Rev. Charles G. Lindemann delivered the invocation.

Selections were rendered by the high school orchestra. The graduates greeted their friends at a reception held in the school gymnasium after the ceremonies.

Clark Leaves For Lions Convention

Attending the international convention of Lions to be held June 15 to 18, Claude E. Clark, leaves today as delegate of the Richmond Den of Lions for Miami, Florida, where the convocation is to be held. Delegates from all over the world will attend the session, and will take an excursion to Havana, Cuba, after the convention. Clark will visit the flooded districts of the Mississippi valley on his way home.

Mrs. L. C. Stetelmeyer, 624 Eighth street, and her sister, Miss Mande Mason, of San Francisco, are visiting in Cloverdale. They are stopping with Mrs. Stetelmeyer's sister, and expect to be gone several days.

Chamberlin Proposes Non-Stop Flight Around World; Serious Consideration Given Return Hop To New York

$2,000,000 IS ASKED BY FLYER FOR GLOBE HOP

Levine Plans To Build Planes For Trans-Atlantic Hops

By OTTO HAFER
(By Universal Service)
BERLIN, June 9.—If someone will put up $2,000,000, Chamberlin will produce the last word in airplanes, and make a non-stop flight around the world.

Flight Possible
"That is a large order," he said this afternoon, "but I believe it could be done."

"Take the Columbia, for example. We carry ten pounds per horsepower as compared with one pound per horsepower carried by the first mail plane used in the United States."

LITTLE JOE IS SHOT IN CRAP GAME

Plaintive means of "come seven," "fade the works," and "Little Joe" came from a box car in the Southern Pacific yards, as four youths reaped losses or added to them in a what-headed crap frenzy.

And then—Sergeant H. A. Messenger and Patrolman George Bengley hove into view and seven league boots seemed far more necessary than a replenishment of baby's footgear. The four youths, George Vidal, Joseph Edina, Melvorne Ferguson, and Frank Stehl, were charged with violation of Section 230 of the Penal code.

Short shrift was made of the latter three who were each fined $100. Vidal's bail was set at $100 and he will appear before Police Judge C. A. Odell this morning to give an account of his alleged predilection for dancing dominos. All four of these taken into custody were between the ages of 18 and 20 years.

Bone Victim

A CHICKEN BONE which lodged in her throat at luncheon on a railroad dining car kept Miss Miriam Hopkins, leading lady of the Lyceum Players' summer stock company at Rochester, N. Y., out of the cast for two weeks.

HARVEY GUEST AT WHITE HOUSE

(By Universal Service)
WASHINGTON, June 9.—Colonel George Harvey, former ambassador to Great Britain, was today a guest of President and Mrs. Coolidge in the temporary White House mansion at Dupont Circle.

Richmond Host To Oak C. C. Business Men

Identical Needs Of Two Communities Told In Local Conclave

Richmond and Oakland shook hands yesterday and pledged cooperation in the solving of mutual problems of the East Bay. The occasion was the visit of a delegation of manufacturers and business men representing the Oakland Chamber of Commerce, headed by President Charles P. Howard to Richmond where they joined President P. M. Sanford, directors and members of the (Richmond) Chamber of Commerce and Richmond Merchants' Association at luncheon at the New Hotel Carquinez.

Shows Standard Oil Plant Following the luncheon the visitors were taken on a tour of the great Standard Oil Company's plant here. They were personally conducted by Robert T. Osborn, manager of the Richmond refinery, the world's largest and most complete oil refinery.

TWIN BROTHERS DENY CHARGES, ADMIT IDENTITY

Rewards for Each of Two Alleged Robbers Total Over $20,000

(By Universal Service)
WASHINGTON, June 9.—Rewards totalling about $20,000 on the heads of Roy and Ray De Autremont, youthful twins arrested yesterday for the Oregon mail holdup and dynamiting which cost four lives, will go to informers or the Steubenville, Ohio, police, it appeared today.

Department of Justice agents who instigated the arrest and helped to make them will have no share, as they are never permitted to accept rewards. It was announced at the department. Names of the informers were withheld.

The "tip" that the Autremonts were working at a Steubenville Steel Mill reached the department's Columbia office June 3. J. Edgar Hoover, director of the bureau of investigation, reported to Attorney General Clegg (Continued on Page 3)

JUST AND JEST!

BULLS "SHOOED!"

(By Universal Service)
TONOPAH, Nev., June 9.—Nevada ranchers believe in looking after the comfort of their blooded stock. As an experiment a number of the stockmen shod their bulls last year. It was found that the condition in which they returned from the range was much better. It was discovered that the shoes enabled the animals to cover more territory and invade rougher ranges than the unshod ones. Thirteen of the pure bred white face bulls at the Georgetown ranch were shod this year.

In the shoeing process a specially constructed rack is used for picking up the bulls and holding them securely while the shoes are being placed. The old method allows the shoes to be more securely attached and very few of the bulls now come in from the roundup with loose shoes.

GOOD JOKE

(By Universal Service)
DELPHOS, O., June 9.—When Mayor George Leasure tried to cash a $5 check given him in payment of a fine by a man arrested for a traffic violation, he found today that the paper is phoney. The man, who gave his name as Carl English, has not been found.

MRS. JENSEN AT S. F. GATHERING

(By Universal Service)
Marie Macdonald Jensen, secretary of the Richmond Merchants' association and Mrs. Belle Bugmann, attended the monster whist party of the Business and Professional Women's club in San Francisco last night. Over 700 representatives were in attendance.

"WINGS OF THE STORM" OPENS AT CALIFORNIA
Do you remember the fairy—Tinker Bell—in "Peter Pan"? She was a tiny bit in that film, but she comes to the screen at the California Theatre at today's matinee in a grown-up role. She impersonates Anita Baker, millionaire sportsman, a great lover of dumb animals, in Fox Film's version of "Wings of the Storm," featuring Thunder, the noted police dog star.
The lovely girl who won the hearts of children of all ages in "Peter Pan," is Virginia Brown Faire. She is a great favorite with theatre goers here who will be interested in the announcement that she gives one of the best performances of her career in "Wings of the Storm."
This is by no means the first time Miss Faire has appeared under the Fox Films banner. One of her first successes after entering pictures was in "Monte Cristo," starring John Gilbert. This was followed by another success opposite John Gilbert in "Romance Ranch."
Virginia Brown Faire won a screen contest conducted by a motion picture publication. That was seven years ago when she was a high school girl. She went to Universal and continued her studies under a private tutor while appearing in pictures, but it was not until she went under Fox Films banner that she gained widespread attention. Miss Faire is a beautiful girl with dark brown eyes and hair.
William Russell and Reed Howes complete the trio of principals in "Wings of the Storm."
Other film features include "Midnight Follies," a Mermaid comedy, and International News.
On the stage Matilda Meyers presents the year's smartest "Kiddie Revue," with fifteen of Richmond's cleverest kiddies, and Larry Canelo, at the console of the huge organ.

POLICE SEARCH FOR "GORILLA MAN" BRANDER
(By Universal Service)
LOS ANGELES, June 9.—Police were searching tonight for a so-called "gorilla man" who early today forced entrance to the Hollywood apartment of Miss Doris Dore, 21, beautiful New York actress overpowered her after a desperate struggle and left her unconscious and bleeding after carving the initial "K" seven times on her body with razor blade.
According to the story the dramatic actress told the police, she was awakened from her sleep by a knock on the door. Miss Dore opened it and was confronted by a man whom she recognized as having met at a Greenwich Village party in New York twenty months ago and who has followed her over the country since that time, annoying her at every opportunity.
Miss Dore said she fainted as the man grabbed her and held her in a tight embrace. When she regained consciousness she found that her assailant had branded her on the forehead, chest, chin, to arms and hands.
Staggering to a telephone, the actress, who recently appeared in a local stage production, telephoned the police. An immediate systematic search of the city was begun for the "gorilla man." Police expressed the belief that Miss Dore's assailant was motivated by mysterious revenge or is suffering from a mania that impelled him to slash the young woman's body.
In her story to the police, Miss Dore said that when she first met the man at Greenwich Village he asked her to sign a paper, in a spirit of daring, she said, she wrote her name. Since that time, she said, she has been continually annoyed by the man although he has never asked to take her anywhere.
"Always," said Miss Dore, recounting her amazing experience, "when he would annoy me, I would laugh and tell him to mind his own business and that I wanted nothing to do with him."
"I did not know that the man had followed me across the continent until a few nights ago when he intercepted me on the street as I was walking to my apartment."
"I became frightened and as I started to walk hurriedly away he said 'don't get fresh with me—we mean business.'"
Miss Dore thought nothing of the incident until the man appeared at her apartment early today and knocked on her door.
"When I opened it—zowie! The man, whom I recognized as the 'gorilla man' grabbed me," the actress said. "I fought to release myself and tried to scream but he held me in a powerful grip and shoved his hand over my mouth."
"I saw him take a razor blade or small penknife from his pocket. Then he slashed me across the face. I must have fainted as I remember nothing until I awoke later and found that the brute had carved the initials 'K' on my forehead, arms, head and breast."

'Ben' Taught Victims Perjury

CROP PROSPECT IN FLOOD AREA IS HELD POOR
(By Universal Service)
WASHINGTON, June 9.—An overabundance of rain coupled with a late spring has seriously affected crop prospects over the upper and middle Mississippi basin, the crop reporting board of the department of agriculture announced today.
Continued rains have delayed corn planting in all sections while a backward spring generally has reduced the estimated yield of winter wheat by 57,000,000 bushels.
On June 5 only one fourth of the intended corn acreage had been planted while only about one-half of a large area which includes the southern two-thirds of Ohio and Indiana, much of Ohio and Pennsylvania, northwestern half of Kentucky, eastern corner of Missouri, southwestern corner of Iowa and some of the overflowed sections of the lower Mississippi valley, had been planted. This region usually produces over 30 per cent of the country's usual corn crop.
All other sections where planting had practically been completed the work was much later than the board said it was too early to forecast the probable corn production this season, adding that unusually favorable weather during the growing season would overcome the handicap of late planting.
Spring wheat conditions were reported good with the exception of Illinois, Colorado and Washington where progress was described as fair.
In California, the sharing honors with Thunder, the dog marvel, in "Wings of the Storm." All of the 15 odd kiddies in this Richmond miniature Follies are Richmond girls and each summer Miss Meyer presents them in a new revue. This year's revue promises to eclipse anything presented in the past by these clever kiddies.

HEART TROUBLE Marvelously Relieved
While visiting her daughter here in Oakland, Mrs. W. H. Morton of Stockton was in such great pain due to heart trouble that she could neither walk nor rest in the place of the sickest woman whom she consulted expressed the opinion that she had not more than ten days to live. She truly seemed to be at the point of death when she took her first package of the Fong Wan Herbs. It was cooked for her at home, and that night she had the first rest after many weeks of terrible suffering. After four weeks of the Fong Wan Herb Treatment, she was able to return to her home in Stockton. From that city she has sent the following testimonial to the Fong Wan Herb Co.:
OWES HER LIFE TO FONG WAN HERBS
Stockton, Cal., March 21, 1927.
To the Fong Wan Herb Co.:
I have been a sufferer with valvular trouble of the heart for some time. I became so ill that my doctors, who were many, gave me but a week or ten days to live. I decided to try the Fong Wan Herb Co., and to the amazement of all who attended me, I was able to walk into their office after taking the Herbs one week. I have now taken them four weeks and I not only have a good heart, but have also been helped in other ailments.
I cannot speak too highly of the Fong Wan Herbs as I owe my life to them. I am very grateful to Fong Wan for his kindness.

GEORGE CANTUA BLANKS ALL STANDARDS, 4 TO 0

ARLETT CREW DRAWS CLOSER LEAGUE LEAD

HOW THEY STAND

Refinery ..... 4-2-1-667
Barrell House ..... 4-2-1-667
Mechanics ..... 3-3-1-500
All Standards ..... 1-5-1-167

George Cantua, a broad-shouldered right-hander, who has been hitting the Mechanics' bench for the past several seasons, stepped out of seclusion yesterday long enough to cover himself with glory by pitching a three-hit shut-out over the All Standards.

Cantua's great pitching gave the Mechanics the contest, 4 to 0, and put them within striking distance of first place in the Twilight League. Pop Arlett's henchmen are now only one full game behind the Refinery and Barrell House clubs, who are deadlocked for first place.

Cantua, who was considerable of a twirler before he injured his arm several years ago, looked good in his comeback yesterday against the lowly All Standards. Huzefka and Murphy were the only All Standards able to solve his delivery. Huzefka getting two hits and Murphy one. Cantua didn't display much of a fast ball, but his curve was working to perfection. In Cantua, Kersten and Kogler the Mechanics have a pitching staff that should give them the bulge over the other clubs in the long pennant race.

Walter Murphy, pitcher for the Ben Maliks, in the City League, didn't crack such a sloppy game himself yesterday. The big right-hander kept the Mechanics guessing with his slow hooks and would have held them to a smaller score had not his teammates contributed three hits in the field.

The Mechanics got to Murphy early and tallied once in the opening round. Tony Lamarra started things with a single over short and second. "Sardine" Bartoli popped up to Huzefka, but his brother, "Anchovie" Bartoli, slapped a long fly to left, scoring Lamarra from third, which he had reached on a passed ball.

The winners tallied again in the second round. After Arlett had rolled out to Carson, O'Rourke singled through short and went to second when Murphy muffed the throw-in. Tod Murray then sent a roller to second that went through Remell's legs. O'Rourke scoring on the misplay.

Murphy sent the Mechanics back to the bench one, two, three for the next few innings, but they got to him again in the sixth for their final two runs of the day. With one away, "Sardine" Bartoli singled to left and "Anchovie" Bartoli drew a free ticket to first. Lane forced the latter at second. Remell to Carson, with "Sardine"

Safety Stressed At Scout Camp

Safety will be the keynote of preparations for the Y. M. C. A. camp Pioneer that is to open on the Russian river next Monday. Life guards will always be present when any of the campers are swimming in the river. Precautions have been taken to safeguard the health of the boys.

A crew, under the direction of Rev. H. Greenlee leaves for the camp this morning to put in shape to receive the 75 campers Monday. Rev. Greenlee is accompanied by Everett Tittemore, George Johnston, Elmer Overaa, Sam Rowe, George Olson, and Dean Hall.

Bartoli relay to field on the play. Pop Arlett followed with a single to left, scoring "Sardine" Bartoli. Lane showed that he had his head up by going all the way to third on the hit. He scored a minute later when Healy, All Standard catcher, allowed one of Murphy's pitches to get away from him.

$2,000,000 IS ASKED BY FLYER FOR GLOBE HOP

"If such advances have been made in the past few years, there is no reason not to expect further advances, with the possible development of a plane capable of carrying sufficient fuel to fly around the world without a stop."

Levine Undecided

Charles A. Levine, who accompanied Chamberlin on the non-stop flight from New York to Germany, does not think so much of the proposed non-stop flight around the world as he does of trans-Atlantic aerial service.

"I am completing plans to invest $2,000,000 in the construction of planes for regular trans-Atlantic flights, and I believe, will have such planes in operation within a year," said Levine.

Germany Lands Fliers

Meanwhile Germany continued to laud Chamberlin and Levine, and the public interest in the two Americans shows no signs whatsoever of diminishing.

Foreign Minister Stresemann entertained the two air heroes at luncheon today. The entire staff of the American embassy, Secretary of State Schubert, and Ministers Curtius and Koch were guests. They had tea as guests of the Aeronautical Society.

Crowds continued to gather about the American embassy, cheering Chamberlin and Levine, and calling for them to make an appearance.

When two American newspapermen left the embassy and were mistaken for the fliers, a near riot occurred.

Tonight, Chamberlin and Levine were entertained at dinner by the minister of transport.

Standard Sanitary Head Dines Staff

In appreciation of the co-operation of the staff, H. W. Creeger, manager of the Standard Sanitary Manufacturing company, in San Pablo, gave a banquet in the dining room of the Hotel Carquinez last night. Creeger is leaving Sunday for Tiffin, Ohio, and he will bring his family to live in Berkeley. He was called from Tiffin to take charge of the San Pablo plant, being assistant manager of the pottery works in Tiffin.

Speakers at the banquet last night were the department heads of the local plant. B. Weisberger gave a piano selection. Miss Hecker responded to the toast to the ladies. About 38 attended the banquet.

Creeger said that the Richmond pottery plant was the most up-to-date that he had ever seen, and that the recent addition of new kilns made the plant the most modern he knew of. In the time he has been here, Creeger says he has received the best of co-operation and results from the staff of the works.

York from Berlin—if their wives will allow them to.

Discussing the offer made by William Randolph Hearst, of a prize of $100,000 for a return flight across the Atlantic in the Bellanca plane Columbia, Chamberlin and Levine said today that they had not reached a decision, and would not make one until they had consulted their wives, who will arrive here next week.

"Everything depends on whether our wives will let us fly back," said Levine.

"The Hearst prize offer looks fine, and I like the idea a great deal, although we didn't, at first, think of flying back. I would like to fly back, but I couldn't decide immediately."

Chamberlin, asked about the proposal, said:

"I don't know. I can't say yet. I am submerged in technical problems and will not have time to think over the possibilities and study the geographical details. We zigzagged all over Germany and the eastern Atlantic coming over, and I don't want to do it again. I must study the maps and determine the best route."

GOVERNORS TO JUDGE FINISH OF ROAD RACE

SAN FRANCISCO, June 9.—Because of the later-state, coast-wide and national significance of the Redwood Highway Indian Marathon, which is to be dispatched from San Francisco city hall, Friday, June 14, at 10 a. m., by Mayor James Rolph, Jr., officials of the Redwood Empire Association in charge of the event, have invited the governors of California, Oregon, Washington and British Columbia to act as judges at the finish of the race, in Grants Pass, Oregon.

The governors so invited include C. C. Young of California, Governor L. L. Patterson of Oregon, Governor Roland H. Hartley of Washington and his honor the Governor of British Columbia, Governor R. C. Dilln, of New Mexico, is also invited, first to tie in the interior states in the tier of eleven western states, and second, because three Zuni Indians from New Mexico are being entered in the race, to run under the colors of Marvellous Marin, Willits and Eureka, respectively.

This marathon, said to be the longest endurance contest on record in the north American continent, will cover the full length of the Redwood Highway, a distance of 480 miles, the time limit being 15 days and the capital prize being $2000.00.

Officials of the marathon declare that special checking stations and checkers have been designated, also official inspectors, such that the Indian contestants will cover the entire distance on foot, as required by the rules of the race.

FAST MATCHES BILLED AT EL CERRITO ARENA

Promoter Joseph Rossi's all-star card of boxing is ready for the Fans' approval for tonight at his El Cerrito Athletic club. The boxers wound up their training yesterday and all reported themselves as fit and ready to fight even if called on by Uncle Sam for another great world war.

Interest is at fever heat in the main event of eight rounds. Every one wants to see Gene Cline the valley champ (white) and "Tiger" Bob Robinson, the demon colored middleweight of Denver when they crawl through the ropes for the main event. There is no show in Oakland this week and many of the Oaklanders will surely be in attendance. They all know Cline and Robinson. Both have boxed main events for Tommy Simpson.

This alone assures the fans in this section just what kind of shows Promoter Rossi is attempting to give the fans of Richmond. Turn about is fair play. A few weeks ago Tommy Simpson showed a card that was entirely made up of faces that had boxed here. Now the El Cerrito promoters are stealing all of Simpson's boxers. While many want to see Cline and Robinson there is a good boy down on the card called Billy Watson many of the fans here will recall the latter made the biggest hit member for his great fights, is

Ed Sullivan's SPORT WHIRL

REGARDLESS of what the pre-season predictions were, Pittsburgh is the team to beat in the National League. It has been accepted for some time that any team which cops the American League batting will have to beat the Yankees.

Terrific batting strength has placed both the Yanks and Pirates in the van, and the old adage that a good offense is the best defense is being proved daily and conclusively.

Clyde, Traylor, right, Joe Harris and the Warner brothers, Paul and Lind, have been the big guns in the Pirates attack, which has been whipping the circuit. They have been driving bullet-like smashes to all sections of the landscape, giving their pitchers plenty of runs to work on.

Lon Gehrig, born and raised in New York city; Babe Ruth from Baltimore, and Bob Meusel, from the Pacific Coast, have been spearheads of the Yankee attack. Lazzeri, Combs, Jugars and Koenig have been mauling the ball, but this trio stand out for consistently hard-hitting treatment of opposing pitchers.

This is the year of the big smash in major league baseball. Gene Tunney, master of defensive tactics, rules the heavyweight roost; Dempsey and the big wallop have passed out of the picture. But in baseball the punch has subordinated defense. The Yanks and Pittsburgh prove it.

Babe and Dundee From Same School

ST. MARY'S Industrial School, at Baltimore, Md., has plenty to cheer about these watery spring days.

Babe Ruth, enjoying one of his greatest seasons with the Yankees, is an alumnus of St. Mary's.

So also is Joe Dundee, who won the world's welterweight championship.

Small wonder that the bells of St. Mary's jingle quite gayly. Few schools can boast of a Babe Ruth and a Joe Dundee.

Cloudy, Probable Showers

SAM HARRIS, if he revives "Rain," will substitute Rainy Tom McArde in the title role for Jeanne Eagels. The bulky Queensboro Stadium promoter knows more about floods than Noah, the original umbrella mender. Last season McArde had to postpone twelve shows. This season he has already postponed three. The Shade-Rosebloom fights last year were postponed FIVE times. The only deluge which McArde has missed to date is the Mississippi flood. He had a representative, however, at New Orleans, taking notes.

JIMMY JOHNSTON, manager of Mike McGitig, called yesterday. I told him that McGitig should fight Tommy Loughran before an opponent for Jack Delaney was decided. Johnston snickered: "Eight Loughran. Don't be silly. Tommy claims he beat Mike three times so far. If he has beaten Mike three times already, I'd be a sap to re-match them, wouldn't I? Say anything you want about McGitig, Edward, but just spell his name right. You can't insult me."

JOHN MCGRAW and his little McGraws have started West. The Giants start westward in a tie for third place in Cincinnati, which is slightly punch-drunk; Pittsburgh, which is very tough; Chicago, hard-boiled in its own backyard, and St. Louis, indigestible at any stage of the season. The Giants have been acting like midgits lately. The Western half of the circuit is no rest cure for midgits.

CHICK SUGGS, the whirlwind little colored fighter from New Bedford, Mass., gets knocked out by Bud Taylor of Terre Haute, Ind., on the Coast. It looks as though Suggs is about through. He never recovered, apparently, from the bad hammering given him by Bushey Graham, the Ufrican. Suggs, if he quits the ring, can live comfortably. Dave Lumanasky, his manager, who never wears a hat, made Suggs save his money. He gave Chick just so much for spending money and sent the rest to Chick's wife. That was kindly wisdom.

THE RYDER team, which will represent the United States against Ted Ray and British golf professionals, is to be selected solely from American-born professional golfers. This was the idea of some 110 per cent. American, with short vision. Jim Barnes, who always carries a clover-leaf in his mouth for luck, and was born in Cornwall, England, rightly protests. Barnes might point out that when he won the United States open, and when Jack Hutchinson won the British open, Americans were quick to hail both as "American golfers." However, in picking a team which will carry some prestige with it, Barnes is an Englishman and Hutchinson is a Scotsman. A Daniel has come to judgment.

SPORT press agents are resolving themselves into two groups: Those who do not work Capt. Charles Lindbergh into their blurbs and those who don't. So far it is even, 995 being in the first group and three in the last.

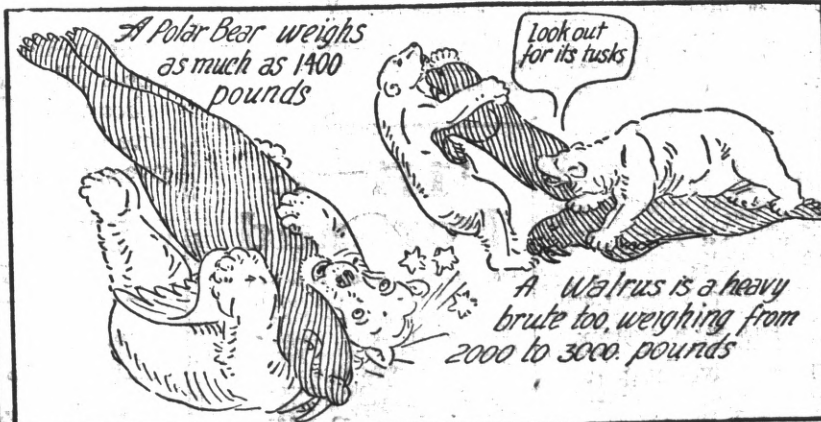

Last week ever seen in Oakland in a long time when he beat Frankie Tierney but was robbed and had to be content with a draw. Watson is only boxing the special event against Johnny Lawson, a rugged fellow of Oakland who has met the best.

Over Watson and Lawson, Bobby Ertle and Ray Walker, who fought such a great fight at the last show, will try to repeat in the six round semi-final. The last fight they fought was one of the greatest ever seen in any ring and better than many main events. This fight alone is going to be easily worth the price of admission.

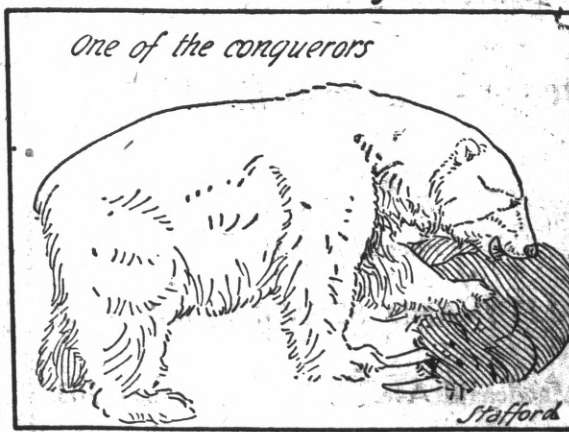

Francisco Lenda, a Filipino, who is sure to be in evidence when the bouts start.

Benny Wagner, who seldom has failed to please, will act as third man in the ring. The cosy little Club is sure to be taxed to its capacity and standing room is sure to be in evidence when the bouts start.

LINDBERGH TO FLY TO N. Y. NEXT MONDAY

an hour and due to reach the nation's capital exactly on schedule time. Lindbergh shows signs of really enjoying himself for the first time since he alighted from the Spirit of St. Louis at Le Bourget Field, France.

After drawing lots to see which section of the Memphis crowd would have dinner with today, the flyer sat down to mess with the engineers. All present reported a good time. After partaking of a hearty meal, Lindbergh was photographed with the "black gang" and then went on deck to watch the flying fish and tell stories with a group of officers.

Col. Lindbergh did not rise until a late hour, for him, this morning, having spent a large part of the night in writing letters in answer to messages received from friends and admirers in the United States since his memorable feat.

For the first time today, he really displayed a keen interest in the arrangements for his reception at Washington and New York.

Father O'Connell To Speak Before Local Rotary

The Richmond Rotary Club will hear Father Thomas O'Connell, of the Oakland organization, at its meeting in Hotel Carquinez today. Group No. 11 has prepared the program for the day, of which Father Harold Collins is chairman.

Richmond Host To Oak C. C. Business Men

responded with a pleasant talk, emphasizing the necessity of "meeting across the table and solving those problems of mutual interest."

"We must get together more often," said Howard, "we of Oakland and the Richmond folks as we do, that we are all part of the great East Bay community and that by sharing our problems we can better solve them."

Talks by E. B. Bull, first vice-president of the Richmond Chamber of Commerce and for thirty years a resident of Oakland, and George Marwedel, a director of the Oakland Chamber of Commerce, further emphasized the friendly spirit between the two East Bay communities.

East Bay Sold
The managing director of the Oakland Chamber of Commerce is now in the East selling not only Oakland but the entire East Bay to eastern manufacturers and business men, according to Howard.

"We want to show them Oakland, of course," said Howard, "but when their representatives arrive we will give them an intimate close-up of the entire East Bay from Hayward to Richmond because we know that what builds up one community builds us all and that a manufacturing plant located in Richmond also helps Oakland and Berkeley and Alameda."

Mayor Mattie Chandler of Richmond in a happy talk extended official welcome to the visitors and paid tribute to the "busy men of affairs" who took time from their own businesses to visit Richmond.

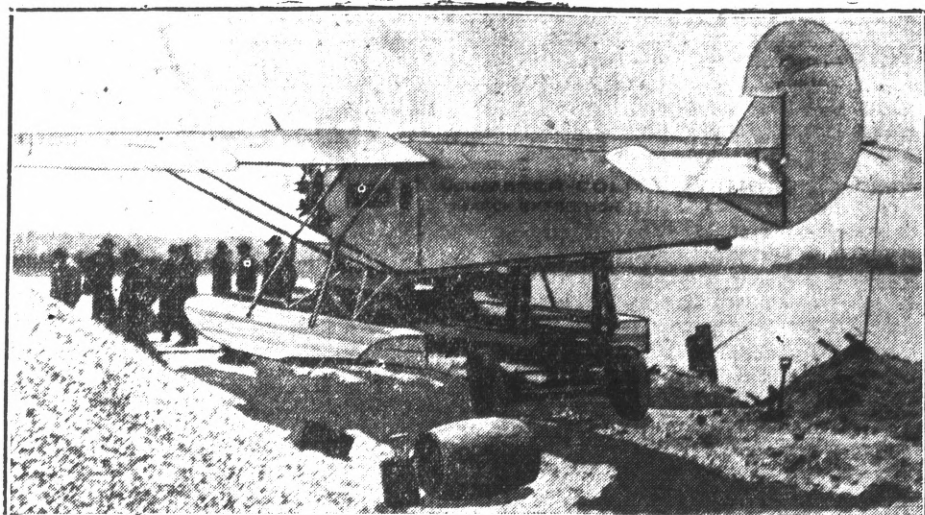

At the Standard Oil plant the visitors were shown 21,000,000 feet of sawed lumber used in making boxes and barrels at the big refinery, constituting the largest lumber yard on the Pacific coast. They also were taken on a two and a half hour tour of the plant and saw how gasoline, motor oil, asphalt and other of the 300 products manufactured in this one plant were extracted from crude California petroleum.

Among the Oakland visitors were George Marwedel, Henry W. Arnold, Nathan Alber, A. L. Kennedy, Bevins Austin, Frank D. Moyer, Howard Barrows, J. D. Baker, O. H. Robertson, Fred A. Kunselmann, J. D. Morse, Lee Hudson, J. W. Dorsey, J. Kelley, H. P. Daminakes, Fred Otis, J. D. Yates, F. V. Perry, "C. C. Ditto, Henry Hinman, E. E. Lichtig, J. A. Christie, Frank A. Bell, Ira A. Morris, Frank M. ## 250,000 To Greet "Flyin' Fool" In Washington Fete Police Guard Is Planned

ROMANTIC APPEAL

He is young, as I have been mentioning, and he is reasonably handsome if his photographs do not flatter him too much. He is unmarried. There you have the element of romance that makes him an object of interest to the fair young things of the nation.

There is nothing romantic about married men. No matter what they do, with their wives and children edging into the pictures, and saying they knew all the time daddy would be successful.

As contributors to science of one kind and another the married boys have their value, but the flapper-boys do not build any air castles.

C. S. HERO

To the young men and the boys, young Charles Lindbergh is the fellow they would like to be, the hero of a tremendous adventure, the fatter of the madly cheering throngs, the guest of honor of kings and queens, not to mention the president and senators of the world, aforesaid. No youngsters could possibly dream himself a grander situation.

I suppose I really should be referring to young Charles Lindbergh by one of his titles, such as colonel. It is strange how he has been expanding in the matter of dignified address of late. When he started out some folks were mentioning him as "The Flying Fool," which would probably have been deemed right and proper had the Spirit of St. Louis hopped into the briny deep, and been heard from nevermore.

"They called him right," folks would have commented, "he was a sucker to tackle it."

But after "Lindbergh's" success, the newspapers, as if by tacit consent, began dropping "the flying fool" monicker. The editors and gentlemen of the copy desk seemed to feel that it was undignified. Perhaps it was.

NICKNAMES—PLENTY

Some kept on speaking of him as "Slim," which is a nickname of his flying youth that fitted his lanky figure like a glove, but presently that, too, was expunged. He became Captain Lindbergh. This was correct enough. He held papers to that effect from the Missouri national guard, though I believe Charles Lindbergh is about the first citizen to make a national guard title sound important.

Now he is a Colonel. He was promoted by the Missouri National guard. Moreover, a committee is waiting to present him with his guard uniform with the eagles on the shoulder straps when the Memphis docks. They have even lux up a pair of old field boots and had 'em patched by a local cobbler working as feverishly as if under executive orders to get the boots fixed in time.

Strenuous Reception
The hero business is not all that it's cracked up to be, however. I would judge from a casual perusal of the program that has been mapped out for the young man during his stay in Washington, that he will have to display more endurance than was required by his flight to France. On that occasion he was spared the windiness of the human voice, anyway.

It is very wearying. However, Lindbergh must be somewhat inured by now to the rigors of receptions and banquets and what-not, after his training in France and in England. He has had a good rest on board the Memphis since then. The messages from that vessel have disclosed no exception of greater strain than peering at whales.

They are going to give him one magnificent spectacle in the form of a sort of flying circus before they toss him to the local lions of oratory, and all that. The dirigible Los Angeles, that used to be the German R-3, and which looks like a big silver fish floating around in a bowl of blue water, will meet the Memphis at sea, and probably 100 planes of one kind and another will join the aerial escort as the cruiser steams through Hampton roads and up the river.

The Los Angeles, as the ZR-3, crossed the Atlantic from Germany with a whole flock of men aboard, but no one can now recall the name of a single man. However, I have heard that someone before Chris Columbus came over to America, and it is a sure thing that a lot came after him, but who remembers who they were?

That's the way it is with Lindbergh. He is our Chris Columbus as far as flying across the Atlantic is concerned. All alone he did it, and he hasn't talked too much about it since, or made a chump of himself about it.

Some of the folks in Washington speak of him, affectionately, as "Lindy." I believe that form was dispensed with in New York for fear it might be confused with a well-known Broadway delicatessen restaurant. The new colonel will perhaps flutter over Broadway Monday in the Spirit of St. Louis. He is due in New York Monday.

He will fill up with pancakes and other maternal delicacies at a breakfast with the national aeronautical association Monday morning then hasten out to Bolling field, up the Anacostia river, where the Spirit of St. Louis will be waiting. The Spirit of St. Louis is now crated up on the deck of the Memphis, safe from the ruthless souvenir hunters of foreign lands. It will be reassembled at Bolling field immediately.

I believe that some of the New York City officials were a little peeved because Westington stepped in and snatched Lindbergh from their embrace; but all will be forgiven when he arrives there.

"Lindy" Reception To Be Heard Over East Bay Radio

(By Universal Service)

SAN FRANCISCO, June 9.—Thousands of citizens of the Pacific Coast will crowd halls and municipal auditoriums Saturday to hear broadcasted the national welcome to Colonel Charles Lindbergh.

Plans for the installation of loud speakers in every city of importance have been completed, according to officials of the national broadcasting company. The municipal auditoriums of San Francisco, Oakland, and Portland have been ordered equipped for the event.

The program will be on the air from 9 to 11 a. m. and 6 to 8 p. m.

TWIN BROTHERS DENY CHARGES, ADMIT IDENTITY

Ray and Ray De Autremont, notorious twin bandits, were arraigned here today following their capture yesterday, after a world-wide search lasting three and one half years.

The brothers were sought after the holdup and dynamiting of a Southern Pacific railroad train, October 11, 1923, when three members of the crew were killed. Ray and Ray were brought before United States Commissioner C. J. Borkowski.

Ray married since the holdup and is the father of one child. His brother lived with him. Mrs. Ray De Autremont told authorities that until last night she did not know the real identity for her husband or her brother-in-law. She said she met her husband in Ironton, O., and was married after a brief courtship. Ray assumed the name of Clarence Goodwin, and Ray that of Elmer Goodwin.

Last night both brothers signed their real names when booked, but made no confession of the holdup.

JACKSONVILLE, Ore., June 9.—With interest in the trial greatly stirred by the news that Ray and Ray De Autremont had been captured in Ohio a jury was sequestered this afternoon in the morning hearing of Hugh De Autremont, third brother of the trio, accused of holding up a Southern Pacific train at the Siskiyou tunnel in 1923, and killing four trainmen.

Local Lions And Elks To Attend Strei Rites

A number of members of the local Elks and Lions clubs are planning to attend the funeral services to be held today in Oakland at the Elks club for William E. Strei, under the auspices of the Oakland Lions and Elks clubs.

Mrs. Alice Strei, the widow, and her son, Vincent, returned here Wednesday from Ely, Nevada, with Strei's body. He died at an Ely hospital Thursday from injuries suffered in an automobile crash Sunday.

As district governor of the Lions club Strei had just completed a circuit of the clubs in his district when the accident befell him. Of the 108 clubs in California, Nevada and Hawaii, the one at Ely was the last he visited on his tour.

At the services today the Elks will wear blue uniforms and array themselves on one side of the hall, while the Lions, dressed in white, will be seated opposite them. Pallbearers from the Lions club will be:

Harry Hartman, Leroy Goodrich and Jesse Robinson.

The Lions committee working with the Elks will be W. I. MacDonald, Robinson and Hartman. Robinson will deliver the Lions eulogy and O. D. Hamilton, Jr., has charge of the Elks' services.

Strei was president of the local Lions in 1923, was a member of the Merchants' Exchange, an officer of the Community Chest and through his wider activities as a state officer of the Lions was well known in service club circles throughout California.

Besides his widow, Strei is survived by three sons, Vincent, W. E. and Cecil Strei. The family home is at 781 Brookline avenue.

BROOKS DEATH INVESTIGATED

The decision of the state industrial accident commission is expected within a few days in regard to the death of Oscar E. Brooks, Richmond painter, who died May 2 while at work on a house at Seventeenth street and Clinton avenue. A hearing was held into the case in the city hall and testimony taken at that time indicated that Brooks might have fallen from the roof, although at the coroner's inquest doctors testified that Brooks met death as the result of natural causes, and the jury rendered a verdict to that effect.

The London and Lancashire Indemnity company, insurance carriers for Zeb Knott, Brooks' employer, refuses to pay compensation, on grounds that Brooks died naturally. It was brought out by Attorney Hiram E. Jacobs, Jacobs filed the petition for indemnity on behalf of Mrs. Olive Brooks, the widow, and Eva Brooks, daughter of the deceased.

Salvation Army Drive Under Way

The Salvation Army campaign for $2300 is progressing well, according to Charles St. John, chairman of the campaign committee. This was announced at the meeting of the American Legion last night in Memorial hall. Charles Weston, who is canvassing on Macdonald avenue between Sixth and Seventh streets, collected the most contributions yesterday, it was announced.

The funds will be used to promote the regular work of the army.

The Contra Costa Debating club had its regular meeting at Musicians' hall last night.
